

Name: Dr. Rudra Prasad Das

Designation: Assistant Professor

Year of Joining: 2019

Educational Qualifications:

- Master of Science in Zoology, Ph.D. in Zoology
- Research Area: Diversity, Distribution and Bio-ecology of Butterfly Communities of West Bengal (Topic of Ph.D.)
Feasibility study regarding re-introduction of Pygmy Hog (addl. research activities)
Conservation breeding of Brow-antlered Deer (addl. research activities)
- FIP Courses completed: 01
- FDP Courses completed: 01
- Training Courses Completed (short-term & workshops): 11
- Award or Recognition or Educational Achievement: NIL
- Total Paper Published: Books – 02, Book Chapters – 03, Papers – 08
- Total Paper Presented in International, National and State Level Seminars: 04
- Seminars Attended (without paper): 03
- Webinars Attended: 01
- Invited as a resource person by University and Colleges: 07 (University – 03, College – 03, Research Institute – 01)
- Total Teaching Experience on substantive post: 32 months (as on 31st July, 2022)
- Total Teaching Experience on non-substantive post: NIL
- Other Job experiences:
 - Programme Manager (R& D), Nature Environment & Wildlife Society (NGO) (6 months)
 - Scientific Assistant & State Project Coordinator, West Bengal Biodiversity Board (DoE, GoWB) (5 yrs. 10 months)
 - Research Scholar, Zoological Survey of India, Kolkata (1 yr. 6 months)
 - Research Associate, Zoological Garden, Alipore (2 yrs.)
 - Project Officer, WWF-India (Sikkim Programme Office) (6 months)
- Membership:
 - AWC (Asian Waterbird Census) West Bengal State Coordinator (since April, 2020. It is managed in India by the Wetlands International South Asia and BNHS, Mumbai)
 - The Zoological Society Kolkata (Life Member)
 - Prakriti Samsad (Executive Committee Member)
 - National Cave Research & Protection Organization (Executive Member)