The word Shantiniketan means “the abode of peace” Indeed the place is located in the north-central region of west Bengal bhirbhum district approx. 152km north of Kolkata. The town is known for its literary & artistic heritage with the notable figure being Rabindranath Tagore and Nandalal Bose. In addition The Visva Bharati also serves as Shantiniketan’s cultural centre. Rabindranath Tagore wrote many of his literary classics at shantinikrtan. In shantiniketan , seasonal changes bring their own colors and beauties with various festivals. The emphasis in organizing these festivals is on traditional Indian forms & rituals. Holi, the festival of colours celebrated in its own style at shantiniketan,

Students visited chatim tala, Visva Bharati University, Kala Bhavan, Amar Kuti, Khoai Sonajhuri Forest., and baul performance at Sonajhuri. Local village handicraft. Singha Sadan, Cheena Bhavan.,

My heartiest thanks to our Principal Sir. Dr. Shib Sankar sana for giving us the opportunity to conduct such a wonderful educational tour.
